Josie Erzetic named Electrical Safety Authority's Vice President, Legal Affairs, General Counsel & Corporate Secretary

MISSISSAUGA, ON/February 15, 2017 –Josie Erzetic is joining the Electrical Safety Authority in mid-February as Vice President, Legal Affairs, General Counsel and Corporate Secretary.

She comes to ESA from Ontario Power Generation (OPG) where she spent 16 years in a variety of legal and business roles and was most recently Vice President, Corporate Business Development. Prior to OPG, Erzetic worked as a lawyer at Genest Murray, a prominent Toronto-based law firm. She holds a Journalism degree from Carleton University, a LL.B from Osgoode Hall Law School, and the ICD.D designation from the Institute of Corporate Directors.

“Josie has deep expertise working in regulated environments and with stakeholders in the energy sector, and has a strong commitment to corporate governance. I’m very pleased to welcome her to the ESA executive team,” said David Collie, ESA’s President and CEO.

The Electrical Safety Authority

The Electrical Safety Authority (ESA) is an administrative authority acting on behalf of the Government of Ontario with specific responsibilities under the Electricity Act and the Safety and Consumer Statutes Administration Act. As part of its mandate, ESA is responsible for administering regulation in four key areas: the Ontario Electrical Safety Code; licensing of Electrical Contractors and Master Electricians; electrical distribution safety; and electrical product safety.
