

July 1, 2008

UL Warns of Counterfeit Desk Lamps

NORTHBROOK, Ill., July 1, 2008 - Underwriters Laboratories (UL) is notifying consumers and retailers that certain sports-themed desk lamps identified below bear a counterfeit UL Mark for the United States and Canada. These desk lamps have not been evaluated for safety by UL.

Name of Product: Desk Lamp, model NHL-XXX-503. NOTE: XXX represents a combination of three letters, such as "LHN."

Units: Unknown quantity

Manufacturer: Unknown

Date of Manufacture: Unknown

Identification: The counterfeit desk lamps reference the product as a "Cord Set.". Those authorized to bear the UL Mark reference the product as a "Portable Luminaire."

Identification: On the Product: The counterfeit lamps have a holographic label with the UL Mark for the United States and Canada on the base. The label includes the following information:

E84516

LISTED
CORD SET
STP-2
18AWG/2C
105C
VV-1
CSALL110850
FT2

Identification: On the Packaging: The packaging includes the following information:

Indoor Use Only
Pour utilisation
à l'intérieur seulement

Where Sold: The products are known to have been sold online by The Memory Company.

What You Should Do: UL recommends consumers stop using these products immediately and return them to the place of purchase.

July 1, 2008

Packaging and Product Unauthorized to Bear the UL Mark

Packaging and Product Authorized to Bear UL Mark

