

February 22, 2011

Groupe SEB Canada Inc. Recalls T-fal Maxi Fry Deep Fryer Due to Potential Fire Hazard

The Electrical Safety Authority is notifying the public that Groupe SEB Canada Inc. has announced a voluntary recall of the following consumer product. Consumers should stop using recalled products immediately.

Name of Product: T-fal Maxi Fry Deep fryer.

Units: Approximately 14'000 units affected in Ontario, approximately 40'000 total in Canada.

Manufacturer/Importer: Groupe SEB Canada Inc.

Hazard: Potential Fire hazard may exist due to overheating of a loose internal connection.

Incidents/Injuries: 117 incidents, overheated terminal blocks with kitchen countertops receiving minor damage. No injuries were reported.

Description/Models: Deep Fryer, models FF100250 and FF100651, colour: white, retail prices $60-$80. This recall is only for T-fal Maxi Fry deep fryer with production date codes prior to the 19th week of 2005. Any production date after week 19 of 2005 is not included in this recall.

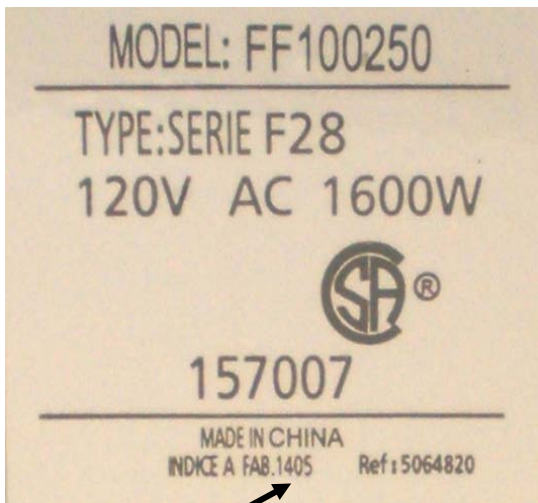

Sold by: Canadian Tire Corporation Limited, Hart Store Inc., Home Hardware Stores Limited, London Drugs, Metro Richelieu Inc. and The Northwest Company Inc.
When was distributed: Sold in Canada between 2003 – 2005.

Manufactured in: China

Remedy: Consumers are advised to stop using immediately and contact Groupe SEB Canada's Consumer Service for assistance and further action. Deep fryers will either be repaired or replaced.

Consumer Contact: Groupe SEB Canada's Consumer Contact Centre 345 Passmore Avenue, Scarborough, Ontario, Canada. M1V 3N8, telephone: 1-800-418-3325.

Remarks: The recalled units are certified to Canadian Standards by CSA International. For more information about CSA International product certification process please visit: www.csa-international.org.

FAB 1405 represents (week 14 of year 2005)

